Heritage says about the past legacy of a particular place, with relation to its culture, tradition, history and community. Heritage is what we value as a people and choose to pass on to future generations. Heritage has shaped the past and present, will influence future development, and can contribute to stability, growth, and economic development. Heritage tourism encompasses elements of living culture, history, and natural history of place that constitutes a community’s value and steward for the future. These elements are very specific to a community or region and can contribute to pride, stability, growth, and economic development. Heritage and culture are especially critical in rural settings. A person is identified from his land, language and culture. If the person achieves something then he or she becomes a matter of proud his whole community and region. Similarly by developing the land and highlighting the culture, the community becomes proud for the particular place. Heritage is what we pass from generation to generation. With the modernization of the society, the culture and tradition of the places are in extinct condition now. Many tourism efforts focus on cultural or natural resources. Heritage implies action as it is a responsibility for stewardship and protection—insuring continuation in the future. Tourism is also purposeful as it is the commercial organization and operation of places and activities that interest and attract the visitors to our communities and regions for their enjoyment and for our economic benefit.

Odisha the soul of India is the place where lord of universe resides. The land is blessed by the grace of Lord Jaganath. The state is a hub for the foodies along with its unique style of handicraft and textile, fascinates the tourists in a great way. Odisha has the largest variety of tribal communities, which are at various stages of socio-economic development. At one extreme are the groups which lead a relatively secluded and archaic mode of life, keeping their core culture intact, while at the other extreme there are communities which are indistinguishable from the general agricultural communities. Odisha is ruled by many major dynasties like the Nanda dynasty, Satavahana dynasty, Gupta Empire and many more. The contribution of these dynasties in the field of art and architecture is of immense value.

B. Puri

is largely a pilgrim place, a religious centre, an Eternal City, a holy land for liberation. Of course, a classic tourist destination owes its origin with the Lord of Universe- Sri Jagannath. Puri, as the centre of culture and religion, forms an integral part of the great Pan-India tradition; being one of the Dham, founded by the great reformer JagatguruSankaracharya: perhaps the first door opened for the domestic tourists. SankaracharyaMatha which is located near Sea Beach still bears the eternal truth. Inscriptional records are available down the centuries about the glory of Sridham, PurusottamaDham, Sri JagannathDham and many travellers, teachers and preachers paid their visit to this place. Puri is always a seat of cultural transgression.

C. Sun Temple of Konark

The magnificent Sun Temple at Konark is the culmination of Odisha temple architecture, and one of the most stunning monuments of religious architecture in the world. Built by the King Narasimhadeva in the thirteenth century, the entire temple was designed in the shape of a colossal chariot with seven horses and twenty four wheels carrying the sun god, Surya, across the heavens. Surya has been a popular deity in India since the Vedic period. In India, when the sun rises in the east, the first ray falls on a point located inside the temple One can wonder by seeing this gigantic temple had he will say the language of stone is defeats the language of man.

D. Lingaraj Templ

in Bhubaneswar, dedicated to Lord Shiva or Tribhuvaneswarre presents the perfect harmony between Orissa's architectural style and decorative motifs. The origins of the temple date back to the 7th century, and YayatiKesari is believed to have initiated its construction, when he re-located his capital from Jaipur to Bhubaneswar. On the other hand, inscriptions on the wall of the "Jagamohana" or waiting room of the temple carry the story of the grant of land for the construction of the Kirttivasas (Lingaraj) Temple during the reign of King AnantavarmanChodaganga in 1114-1115 AD. The temple is also believed to be Lord Shiva's choice for a resort over Varanasi. Archaeologists have assigned the Lingaraj temple to the 10th century, with the "Jagamohana", Sri Mandir, the "bhogamandap" and the "natyamandir" being added at a later date.

E. Buddhist Monuments

The places like Uday giri & Khanda giri, Ratnagiri, and Dhauli are exhibiting finest architectural exhibitions of Buddhist tradition Chaitya halls &Viharas of Udaygiri&Khundagiri will give a clear idea of life styles of Buddhist monks. The Shanti stupa of Dhauli is an added attraction for the visitors.

F. Art & Craft
Odisha is a land where every corner is evident with the greatness of art and craft. The traditional quintessence of Oriyan art and craft can be seen. The tiny Raghurajpur village with busy artisans upholds the long tradition of muralpaintings as well as Patta paintings, palm leaf paintings, paper Mache and stone carvings etc. The tourists can find a good number of households demonstrating the art materials while doing the paintings.

G. Textiles
Ikat- gloriously woven, blurry edged, gem coloured design, in gorgeous yarns of silk and cotton. It is manufactured in the village like Barapalli, Atabira, and Nuapatna. Speaking eloquently of its old maritime linkages with Bali, the Ikat tradition of Orissa is the intricate process of Tie and Dye, i.e. knotting selections of yarn before dipping them in separate colors one at a time and finally weaving them to produce one of the most delightful designs in multi-hued tones, in motifs drawn from the richness of nature, in threads both silken and gold. Bomkaisaree print explains the social life of the Tribal people which is manufactured in village of Bomkai. Tarkaisaree is another famous saree of Odisha manufactured in Cuttack famous for its silver embroidery work.

H. Appliqué
in Orissa is an old temple art, which has been refined to perfection. A fine example of the craft is the enormous appliqué canopies above the reigning deity of Puri, Lord Jagannath. Appliqué art is the process of cutting colored cloth into shapes of animals, birds, flowers, leaves and other decorative motifs and stitching them on a piece of cloth that can ultimately be used as a lamp shade, a hand bag or even a garden umbrella. The village of Pipili, close to Bhubaneswar is the site of beautiful appliqué work, created by artists, quite a few of whom have won national awards for their crafts apart from this metal & silver work are also famous in Odisha.

I. Fairs & Festivals: RathYatra (June-July)
The passing of time has certainly not dimmed the pomp and ceremony or the intense religious aura that surrounds the annual rites for one of the most dynamic temple-festivals in the world. The RathYatra of Lord Jagannath at Puri is one of the most important festivals not only for the Orissans but also for the whole human race. The Jagannath Temple is one of the four holiest places (dhams) in India for the Hindus and the chariot procession (rathyatra) every year is a cultivation of the religious importance, the deities enjoy. The sheer sizes of the chariots are enough to fire the imagination. These enormous raths, hoisted on huge wheels are hauled by thousands of frenetic devotees to the GundichaGhar, where Lord Jagannath,. His sister Subhadra and brother Balhanda rest for a week. The whole process is repeated when the images are transported back to the Jagannath Temple amidst a great deal of colour and frenzy activity. The other festivals like MaghaSaptami (January-February) Celebrated in praise of Lord Surya, MaghaSaptami is one of the most colourful and popular festivals in the state.

Being the land of ancient and sacred temple and a state where three religions i.e. Hinduism, Jainism and Buddhism flourished, is thronged by pilgrims throughout the year. Heritage can incorporate both tangible and intangible products. State government, local governments and property owners and members of the community all have a role to play in ensuring that the valuable asset of our heritage is recognized, respected and protected. Thus, we should contribute our own part of act toward the society in order to sustain our heritage, our culture, our tradition, our community and the most important “Our Identity”.
